PUG NOSE

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

C.J.POTTER

WRITER OF WONDERFUL SWEETHEART OF MINE, MONKEY MAN ETC.

PUG NOSE.

Words and Music by
C. J. POTTER.

Moderato.

ff

Vamp.

ffz

p

Voice.

When they used to call him Pug nose, It on-ly seem'd to make him grin, — Kids all thought and used to say, There Years went by and lit-tle Pug nose, Had reach'd the gilded Hall of Fame, — Nev-er tried to hide a-way, For

p is-n't an-y fight in him, — Un - til one day when just for — fun, They kick'd his lit-tle yel - low ev'-ry-bo-dy knew his name, — One day some of his old pals, Came to see their lit-tle pug - nose dog and run, And as he lick'd them one by one, This is what they heard him say. — man of fame, And as he nam'd them one by one, This is what they heard him say. —

Copyright MCMXX by C. J. Potter, Philada. Pa.

International Copyright Secured. All Rights Reserved.

CHORUS.

I lend-ed you my fish hook and my line, I lend-ed you my whis-tle many-a time,

p-f

Just because I thought that you were making fun, I ev-en let you call me a Son of a gun, The.

best-est friend I ev-er had, is that lit-tle yel-low dog, ——— I did-n't like to beat yer but you made me sore, Don't you nev-er dare to ev-er call me Pug nose an-y more. — I more. — fz

1 2

BREAKING HOME TIES . .
AND HE LICKED THEM ONE BY ONE
HE HAS REACHED THE GILDED HALL OF FAME AND THEY NEVER KICKED HIS YELLOW DOG NO MORE . .

Novelty Fox Trot—"Dempsey" From His Kid Days to the Gilded Hall of Fame